Policy No. 405

Subject: Violations of Library Board or Library Policies

1. Under Public Act 164 of 1877, as amended, the Library Board may exclude from the use of the Library and its services, any and all persons who shall willfully violate Board rules.
2. The use of the Library or its services shall be limited when excessive demands of groups or individuals tend to curtail service to the general public. Such demands may include those made by students, puzzle contestants and others whose demands for staff time, available materials or space would prohibit attention and service to other individuals or groups.
3. The use of the Library or its services may be denied for due cause. Such cause may be failure to return materials, pay penalties or show proper identification, destruction of Library property, disturbance of other patrons or any other objectionable conduct on Library premises.
